

Team Hickam History

The Air Force's most historic airfield

Jan. 11-12, 1935 - Amelia Earhart made the first Hawaii-to-Mainland solo flight in her red Lockheed Vega monoplane, taking off from Wheeler Field at 1644L and arriving in California 18 hours and 16 minutes later.

Jan. 13, 1949 - William P. Odom, in a Beechcraft Bonanza, set a world distance record for light planes by a 2,400-mile nonstop flight from Honolulu to Oakland in 22 hours.

Jan. 1975 - Mr. Elliott Hickam (nephew of Lt Col Horace M. Hickam) and his wife and daughter visited Hickam AFB, Hawaii.

Jan. 7, 1976 - A $106,422 POL repair job was completed at Waiakakalaua Fuel Storage Area and Kipapa Tank Farm.

Jan. 8-10 1976 - CORONET BOGIE transited Hickam with 16 F-4Ds and three F-4Cs supported by 23 KC-135s from WESTPAC. The F-4Ds redeployed to CONUS and the F-4Cs were transferred to the 154th Fighter Interceptor Group (FIG), Hawaii Air National Guard (HANG).

Jan. 9, 1976 - Dr. David Inman and Dr. Raymond Devettere conducted a seminar on Human Relations and Ethics.

Jan. 7, 1982 - Captain Courtney L. Jordan, Jr., was assigned as Commander, 15th Services Squadron/Chief of Services, vice Lt Col Melvin T. Nishihara, who was reassigned to the 15th Air Base Squadron (Wheeler AFB) as Executive Officer.

Jan. 11 1982 - Capt Tomma G. Irvine assumed duty as Chief of Public Affairs, replacing Capt Richard L. Oborn, who was reassigned to HQ PACAF Public Affairs.

Jan. 13, 1998 - Colonel Gary H. Murray relinquished command of the 15th Medical Group to Colonel Frank A. Kyle, Jr.

Jan. 12, 2001 - Lt Gen Donald Peterson, deputy chief of staff of Air Force personnel, gave a "Spread the Word" briefing at Hickam's Memorial Theater.

AT THE MOVIES

Memorial Theater 449-2239
CLOSED Monday and Tuesday

Friday, Saturday and Sunday 7 p.m.

WOMAN THOU ART LOOSED - Based on Bishop T.D. Jakes' self-help novel, Michelle Jordan grows up in an environment of abuse and molestation at the hands of her mother's boyfriend while her mother looks the other way. These circumstances lead young Michelle into the dark abyss of drugs, prostitution and prison. While incarcerated, she sends Bishop Jakes a letter seeking a visit. With the prodding of her mother, Jakes visits Michelle and through a series of flashbacks he uncovers the dark past that has led to Michelle's drug abuse, association with abusive men and finally murder. Jakes gets Michelle an early furlough with one stipulation, that she attends his upcoming three-day revival. Still bitter and distrusting of the church community, her mother in particular, Michelle is forced to do some soul-searching that takes her on a journey to recovery and resolve. Starring Kimberly Elise, Loretta Devine. Rated R (violence, sexual content and drug use).

Wednesday and Thursday 7 p.m.

THE INCREDIBLES - A dysfunctional family of famous superheroes, led by the retired and overweight Mr. Incredible is placed in a quiet suburb by the Witness Protection Program in order to protect them from their archnemesis. But their peaceful existence is hardly that, with family disagreements sprouting up even during fights with the bad guys. And when the world is threatened, Mr. Incredible must go back to work to save the planet. Rated PG (Parental Guidance Suggested).

Hickam Heroes

Airman 1st Class Jenn Kincaid
15th Airlift Wing Legal Office

Why the honor Guard? "It gives me a chance to support the families that have gone before me and to represent the best Air Force in the world!"

Off duty - "The thing I like to do best is body boarding and beach bumming it."

What the commander says: "Her duty performance as paralegal is top notch. She briefs military justice topics at commander calls and always puts the Air Force interests above her own." Col. Stewart Noel, 15th AW judge advocate.

Lauren Mineshima
15th Mission Support Squadron

Best part of the blue? "The thing I like most about Hickam is its people. I find most military and locals to be professional and easygoing."

When the duty day is over - "I enjoy doing a movie marathon and having lunch or dinner with friends."

What the commander says: "Lauren is one of the most thoughtful, considerate and warm people that I know. She keeps me grounded and the squadron doesn't run without her." Maj. Christopher Herring, 15th MSS Commander.
